Headteacher update

It has been such a lovely end to the term, that I decided to do one last short newsletter for you all for 2025!

What a treat this week to have our whole school nativity "Knock, Knock" at St Mary's church. It really was fantastic and I am so proud of just how well the children learned their lines, performed their songs and added in signing too! Thankyou to the staff for putting this together and to Father Tom for the loan of his beautiful Church.

After the nativity on Wednesday we were treated to a delicious Christmas dinner cooked by Granny Sue and Becky. Thankyou for cooking dinner for over 100 children! Huge thanks also to all our Governors who came to help out and did playground duty so the staff could have their dinner in peace.

After lunch we had a visit from Grandpa Sticks storyteller. This year we were treated to a story about fairies, angels and singing grandmas. It was so magical and the children were fully invested.

Thankyou to everyone who came along to Carols by Candlelight on Wednesday evening. It really made me feel so festive singing carols in a candlelit church. Thankyou to FOBS for organising the mince pies and mulled wine. They were a real treat.

Yesterday we had lots of party games, so much party food and we were lucky enough to have a visit from Santa! It was very exciting and the children sang him songs and asked him so many questions. He said how wonderful and polite everyone was and that everyone was on the "nice" list! What a relief!

I am delighted to end this year with our revised data from our Key Stage 2 SAT's in summer which has seen us achieve 100% of children achieving age related expectations at the end of Year 6. This really is incredible and we are the top performing primary school in Nottinghamshire and have ranked 10th nationally.

We are thrilled! So, thankyou to all my staff who have worked so hard to make sure that Bunny School is the best it can be and is such an exciting and fun school to be part of.

See you back in school for Spring term on Monday 5th January.

Kind regards
